On February 21, 2006, the General Services Administration (GSA) will release new information regarding Alliant and Alliant Small Business (SB), two government-wide acquisition contracts (GWAC) for information technology (IT) solutions. The new information will be in the form of a video presentation on the Internet, accessible to all interested parties at a site specified on that date. The video will outline the major issues which have been identified since the initial draft Requests for Proposal (RFPs) were released and the enhancements to the Alliant and Alliant SB GWACs that will be made in response to those issues. The video will also include an updated milestone schedule including a second round of draft RFPs, the final RFPs and the award of Alliant and Alliant SB contracts. Upon release of the Alliant webcast, interested parties may wish to ask questions or obtain clarity concerning the overarching strategy. Please email questions and comments to either of the following addresses: the Alliant email, which is alliant@gsa.gov, or the Alliant SB email, which is sbgwac@gsa.gov. Answers to these questions will be posted on both the Alliant and Alliant SB web sites at <http://www.gsa.gov/alliant> and <http://www.gsa.gov/alliantsb>.
